www.cshp-nl.com

The website contents this year included:

- branch news, announcements and advertisements for branch events – all posted on the opening homepage
- an advocacy section – with news on how our branch is promoting hospital pharmacy in the province
- an archive of minutes and committee reports from past annual general meetings
- awards section – with a listing and description of branch awards
- membership information
- contact information for the branch executive and committee chairs
- newsletters section – with current and past issues of Branch Out and other Hospital Pharmacy newsletters from around the province available
- a section to download commonly used branch forms
- the branch manual

Other activities included : contacting members with announcements and information about branch activities through email and maintaining the email address book as updated monthly by CSHP national office.

The website had an average of 507 visits per month from November 2005 to August 2006.

Operating costs this past year include:

Service Provider Fee:

This fee is for the company that gives us space to post our material on to the website.
